

Mrs. D'Haenens' Third Grade Class Items Needed

- 24 #2 high quality pencils -sharpened, if possible
- 24 pencil topper erasers (These go into a jar for all to use because somehow the erasers magically disappear from the ends of the pencils. The Dollar Store has these in packs.)
- 1 box of 8-12 crayons - Not the 64 please! (I would buy a second box and put it in their stockings for Christmas because by about December, their crayons are ruined)
- 1 pair child size blunt tip scissors -name on them please
  - 5 large glue sticks or 8 small glue sticks
- 1 set colored pencils -12 or smaller
- 1 set colored markers - 8-12 count
- 1- dry erase marker (black)
- 1 box Kleenex or more
- 1 container of Clorox wipes or more
- 1 pocket folder (for their unfinished work) in their desk ● 1 composition notebook- any color.
- 1 backpack that can be easily hung up (no big wheels or handles)
- 1 set of watercolor paints (Dollar Store)

Wish list

- Small prizes for store/drawings (such as wrapped candy or toys) ● board or card games, playground balls and jump ropes. Note from Mrs. D'Haenens: Children should not bring toys to school. If they do, they need to stay in their backpacks and only be played with at recess. Otherwise, they may end up in my toy jail. Notice: The items on this list will be used during the regular school day.
